

Dear YOU, 13.1.2025

LIFE is guiding me to a bold new move. Recently I invited to the opening of my new art space, STUDIO AQUAMARIN a multifunctional playground designed to spark flow states, foster community, and birth art. Through my three decades experience of creating art and the collaboration with designer Daniel Büchel, this space really became a gem. I was sure when moving in that I will never move out because it is so delicately perfect for me. Now I am writing with a surprising twist: STUDIO AQUAMARIN will close before it completes its first full circle around the sun. And this is why I am sharing my story. I have 6 weeks to find.

On social media, many of you have seen a high vibrant, thriving art studio - a regional magnet, fully alive with energy, young people and lots of musicians. It looks like I made everything right. And that is all true. Yet this dynamic space will serve me unexpectedly only for the creation of one exhibition: CONSCIOUSNESS IN THE UNIVERSE. This will be an outstanding one. After the opening I start packing without yet knowing where to move.

Why this change ? A few months after the opening, new neighbors arrived: a fitness club operating daily from 6am to 10pm. The soundproofing I was promised proved nonexistent. Every word spoken next door disrupts my focus, making creative flow and the art-caravanserai impossible. When I sought solutions, the landlord responded by sacking me. Though this feels like a curveball, I've come to see it as LIFE guiding me with interdimensional resilience into a new, even higher aligned space. The time has come to dream even bigger, and I invite you to be part of this transition.

Here are my three paths forward:

1. STORAGE / ART DEPOT

A temporary haven to store my art while I embrace a nomadic life until the next space reveals itself. requirements: approx. 50sqm/550sqft, dry, ground level or cargo lift and preferably near the Swabian Sea.

2. NEW STUDIO SPACE

A creative hub to continue my art practice and community-building. Beyond painting, I envision collaborations with musicians and healers, offering awareness trainings and flow states. requirements: approx. 300sqm / 3300sqft, preferably around the Swabian Sea, as well open to where the call leads.

3. LAND FOR VISIONARY ART AND ANCHORING BALANCE

Land that is resonating with being stewarded by artists, healers and farmers to build the next level sphere of heART centered togetherness around a Cosmic Dome. Ideally near the Swabian Sea, as well open to where the call resonates.

Your key to the next door ! Do you know a place or a connection that can help me open the next door FOR A NEW BIRTHING SPACE OF MY ART ? I look forward to your ideas, tips or support. Thank you for your time and support!
